

Wyoming Association of Secondary School Principals

Strategic Plan

VISION:

The Wyoming Association of Secondary School Principals (WASSP) will provide members with opportunities, support services, and networking tools to assist them in their leadership roles.

MISSION:

WASSP – Your best strategy for taking notice, taking stock, and taking action!

Goal 1: Improve organizational marketing, membership, and financial development.

Take Notice:

Web site; new principal contacts; Regional Reps.; Membership is down from 126 to 113 with 250 possible; Districts to support membership; Newsletter; Visibility at Conferences such as NCA and State School Boards

Take Stock:

Need more members; need more visibility; provide more information

Take Action:

Present at School Improvement conference and State School Boards Conference; Reform Regional Rep. Role; Reform newsletter; Reform Website; Initiate a list serve; Pursue other sources of funding; Raise dues; Increase directors salary

Goal 2: Improve leadership skills and professional development; promote aspiring principals; and offer essential knowledge on state standards, assessment, and accountability.

Take Notice:

Break out sessions at NCA Conf.; Bullying/Safe Schools; Breaking Ranks II

Take Stock:

How do we get more members; what professional development do we provide; What is our role in the state to provide support for secondary principals

Take Action:

Professional development needs assessment on Web Site; Training for Regional Reps.; Breaking Ranks II and Breaking Ranks in the Middle; Share articles with members; Share great things that are happening in member schools;

Goal 3: Improve legislative involvement and linkages to other organizations.

Take Notice:

Big and small schools fight over money; our relationship with supt. organization;

Take Stock:

Not a big enough presence in the state or nationally; PTSB; Education Coalition; PLAC

Take Action:

Representation on Education Coalition; Representation on PTSB; Share news from PLAC; Use list serve to share information and promote the WASSP legislative agenda
